SALT RIVER PIMA-MARICOPA INDIAN COMMUNITY, Ariz. (Jan. 20, 2014)- Talking Stick Resort invites guests to witness the epitome of “Bad to the Bone” when George Thorogood and The Destroyers return to the property on March 1. The legendary blues rock band will definitely entertain the masses as they play stellar covers of Hank Williams’ “Move It On Over” and Bo Diddley’s “Who Do You Love” in the Showroom.

With a music journey spanning more than 30 years, George Thorogood and The Destroyers have released 16 studio albums and sold 15 million albums worldwide. The dynamic band released their first album in 1979 and gained mainstream success just two years later as a supporting act for the Rolling Stones. Their gritty records continue to be in demand today, appearing in numerous blockbuster films, battle-racing video games and Buick Grand National commercials.

Tickets for George Thorogood and The Destroyers are on sale now. Please call (480) 850-7777 or visit www.talkingstickresort.com for more information. Must be 21 or older to attend.
