SALT RIVER PIMA-MARICOPA INDIAN COMMUNITY, Ariz. (Jan. 24, 2014)- Visit Talking Stick Resort on March 8 and spend an evening with songwriting legend, Burt Bacharach! Audiences won't want to miss this special musical moment as the six-time Grammy Award winner performs classic compositions such as "Don't Go Breaking My Heart," "There's Always Something There To Remind Me" and "Anyone Who Had A Heart."

Bacharach partnered with lyricist Hal David in the late 50s and the duo created music magic from the start, composing more than 100 songs in the mid-1960s and writing timeless records including The Carpenters' "(They Long To Be) Close To You," B. J. Thomas' "Raindrops Keep Falling on My Head," Tom Jones' "What's New Pussycat?" and Aretha Franklin's "I Say A Little Prayer."

In 1965, Bacharach released his debut album, "Hit Maker! Burt Bacharach Plays His Hits." He would go on to appear in three Austin Powers films, receive three Academy Awards and write the music for the Broadway play "Promises, Promises." Today, Bacharach remains truly in a league of his own, penning 73 Top 40 singles in the U. S. Tickets for Burt Bacharach are on sale now.
