SALT RIVER PIMA-MARICOPA INDIAN COMMUNITY, Ariz. (Feb. 21, 2014)- The Mavericks are back together and fans can see the anticipated reunion firsthand when the band performs in the Showroom at Talking Stick Resort on April 5. From beginning to end, they will delight as they play singles from their latest album, "In Time", as well as a collection of their greatest hits including "Dance in the Moonlight," "Born to Be Blue," "Back in Your Arms Again" and "All Over Again."

In just 12-years, The Mavericks released six studio albums, won a Grammy Award for Best Country Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocal and produced 14 singles that landed on the Billboard country charts. With several members desiring solo careers, the group disbanded in 2004. But, even time and distance couldn't keep the performers apart for long. They officially reunited in 2012 and released their comeback album, "In Time," a year later.
