TALKING STICK RESORT ADDS NEW OUTDOOR CONCERT VENUE TO POOL

The New Pool to Host National Headline Shows, Such As Staind on June 8

SALT RIVER PIMA-MARICOPA INDIAN COMMUNITY, Ariz. (March 6, 2014) This April, Scottsdale will be home to a new outdoor concert venue. Talking Stick Resort, an enterprise of the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, proudly announces renovations to its main pool to include a stage and capacity for over 4,000.

“Enhancing guest experience at Talking Stick Resort is our top priority,” said Patricia Tate, senior vice president and CFO for Talking Stick Resort. “The renovations to our pool provides us with more than ample space to hold exciting events like our Release pool parties and headline shows, while capitalizing on our state’s beautiful weather.”

As part of the changes, a new day lounge pool will be added. The shallow pool will allow guests to be half in and half out while soaking up the sun in one of the 16 lounge chairs that are immersed in the pool. Six cabanas will be added to the area bringing the total to 27. Each cabana is a VIP cabana outfitted with flat-screen TV’s, furniture, ceiling fans and refrigerators. Moreover, 12 daybeds will be added in the pool area including eight canopied daybeds.

Rounding out the new venue is the new stage. A Stageline Mobile Stage, it is 40 x 60 foot SL320 and converts from trailer to a stage. Along with the stage will be state-of-the art sound and lighting sophisticated enough to present some of the nation’s top headline acts. One of the first to perform will be American hard rock band, Staind on Sunday, June 8. Also booked in the coming months are Phoenix favorites Roger Clyne and The Peacemakers, Collective Soul, and 311.

Details for these shows will be announced soon!

Tickets for Staind at the Pool at Talking Stick Resort will go on sale this Saturday, March 8. Cabana rentals as well as general admission tickets will be available.
